The Court at the stage of admission made the following :

ORDER:

The petitioner worked as a Driver in the respondents-Corporation. He was selected as a Driver in the year 1998 through the selection committee.

2. The petitioner contends that on 14-10-2001 he fell sick and the same was informed to the Depot Authorities. He underwent treatment and he was advised to take bed rest, due to which he could not attend duty during the strike period. Subsequently, the second respondent issued proceedings dated 19-04-2003 against the petitioner, alleging that the petitioner has not reported for duty during the strike period and deleting the name of the petitioner from the selected list. Therefore, his name was deleted from the approved panel of selected candidates without giving any prior notice or conducting any enquiry and without giving him any opportunity. The petitioner preferred an appeal to the appellate authority but the respondents rejected the said appeal stating that there is no appeal against deleting the name from the list of selected candidates. He further contends that this Court allowed the writ petition in W.P.No.4837 of 2003 in the matter of deleting the names of employees from the list of selected candidates without conducting any enquiry and the same was confirmed by the Division Bench of this Court in W.A.NO.1259 of 2003, dated 29-08-2003. Hence, he approached this Court through this writ petition seeking a writ of mandamus declaring that the action of the second respondent through the proceedings dated 19-04-2003 deleting his name from the list of selected candidates as illegal, unjust, amounts to an act of victimization and also in violation of Articles 14,16 and 21 of the Constitution of India and to direct the second respondent to reinstate him into service.

3. The respondents could not place any material to show whether any prior notice was issued or any enquiry was conducted against the petitioner for his unauthorized absence. In the absence of issuing prior notice or conducting any enquiry, the deletion of the name of the petitioner from the list of selected candidates cannot be sustained.

4. In the light of the above circumstances, the order of the second respondent dated 19-04-2003 is set aside. The second respondent is directed to restore the name of the petitioner into the list of selected candidates and allow him to discharge his duties according to rules. This order will not preclude the respondents in taking departmental action in accordance with regulations.

5. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
